Casual Dining Group is one of the largest independent restaurant companies in the UK. We operate some of the most recognisable and loved restaurant brands to be found anywhere in the eating-out market such as Bella Italia, Café Rouge and Las Iguanas.

We operate almost 300 restaurant sites in a variety of locations including leisure parks, shopping centres, airports and high streets. We are a national business with restaurants located across the country from Aberdeen to Plymouth, employing more than 10,000 people and serving more than 20 million meals each year.

With the strong demand for our leading mid-market dining brands we are currently opening one new restaurant every seven to ten days. In addition we are also looking for opportunities to selectively expand Casual Dining Group through franchise partnerships. As a result we recently opened our first restaurants in Dubai and in India.
